1. Do you mainly think of theft in terms of armed robbery or burglary as opposed to “less severe” versions of theft? What other forms of theft are often overlooked as sin?
2. What can we learn from the truth that God works?
3. What is significant about work being commanded before the Fall?
4. What does our culture teach concerning work? Does this agree with what the Bible teaches? How can we “redeem” work?
5. What are ways we can work/labor sinfully? What are some of the abuses of work you have seen or have been guilty of doing?
