Romans 11:33-34 (NLT)

Oh, how great are God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways. For who can know the Lord's thoughts? Who knows enough to give him advice?

Matthew 13:31-32 (NLT)

Here is another illustration Jesus used: The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed planted in a field. It is the smallest of all seeds but it becomes the largest of garden plants. It grows into a tree and birds come and make nests in its branches.

1 Peter 1:18-19 (NLT)

For you know that God paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And the ransom he paid was not mere gold or silver. It was the precious blood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God.

Romans 15:4 (NLT)

Such things were written in the scriptures long ago to teach us. And the scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled.

Ephesians 1:3 (NLT)

All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ.

Colossians 1:22-23 (NLT)

Yet now he has reconciled you to himself through the death of Christ in his physical body. As a result, he has brought you into his own presence, and you are holy and blameless as you stand before him without a single fault. But you must continue to believe this truth and stand firmly on it. Don't drift away from the assurance you received when you heard the good news. The good news has been preached all over the world and I, Paul, have been appointed as God's servant to proclaim it.

John 4:50 (NLT)

Then Jesus told him, Go back home. Your son will live! And the man believed what Jesus said and started home.

John 4:51-53 (NLT)

While the man was on his way, (following the truth and the word) some of his servants met him with the news that his son was alive and well. He asked them when the boy had begun to get better, and they replied Yesterday afternoon at one o'clock his fever suddenly disappeared. Then the father realized that was the very time Jesus had told him your son will live. And he and his entire household believed in Jesus.
