Application Questions

- 1) Are there places where friendship with the world has dulled your sensitivity to sin or weakened your witness, as it did for Lot?
- 2) Where do you see the tendency to “linger” in your own life—areas where you know God is calling you to leave sin, but you hesitate?
- 3) Do you view God’s patience as an invitation to repentance or as permission to delay obedience?
- 4) How does the reality of God’s justice shape the way you think about sin?
- 5) In what ways are you tempted to measure righteousness by performance rather than by Christ’s righteousness credited to you?
- 6) How does knowing that your judgment fell fully on Christ, free you to live for Christ today?
