Isaac #1: A Bride for Isaac

Genesis 24

Big Idea: God providentially guides those who cling to His promises.

Transition: How? This passage gives four ways God guides people who cling to His promises.

1) Faith _____ to Go Back, 1-9

Truth Statement: _____
to the old life when God has spoken about the future.

2) _____ through Obedience, 10-28

Truth Statement: God often guides His people through
_____.

3) Delayed Obedience Is _____, 29-61

Truth Statement: Once God's will become clear, delayed obedience becomes dangerous.

4) God _____ What He Promises, 62-67

Truth Statement: What God providentially ordains,

Application Questions

- 1) What “Haran” am I tempted to return to instead of fully trusting God’s promises?
- 2) Am I seeking God’s guidance through obedience to His Word, or am I looking for signs that justify what I already want?
- 3) Where might delayed obedience be creating unnecessary spiritual struggle or compromise in my life?
- 4) What ordinary acts of faithfulness — prayer, kindness, service, hospitality, perseverance — might God be using in ways I cannot yet see?
- 5) Do I truly believe God’s promises are enough to let go of old securities, comforts, and familiar patterns?
