

Text: 1 Peter 1:22-2:3

Big Idea: Through all circumstances we are called to a life of love.

- We are called to love.
- We are exiled to a new community.
- The gospel defines and motivates love.

Discussion Questions:

1. Reflect on the depth of Jesus' love. How does that give you a deeper view of loving others, particularly those in the church?
2. How do you experience sanctuary from cultural challenges being in church community? How does that equip you to engage the world?
3. Why is it important to transcend temporal differences of opinion within our church family?
4. What are some things that make the church distinctive in today's culture?
