

The Wonderful Cross – pt. 2
Luke 23:32-43; 24:1-12

My Word is My Bond

_____ (empty) promises are all too familiar and profoundly frustrating.

Real Connection

Our faith in a person rises and falls based on the _____ (fulfillment) or _____ (failing) of their promises.

Jesus

Claimed to be a savior by making a _____ (promise) of _____ (paradise).

The Resurrection Is It

The empty tomb _____ (proved) that paradise was not an empty promise.

One and Only

God proved He not only wants to save, but He alone _____ (can).

Wonder

Do you react with _____ (scorn) or _____ (surrender)?

Paradise, Today

The promise is still real today, but you have to _____ (receive) it.

Memory Verse: "He is not here: he has risen! Remember how he told, while he was still with you." Luke 24:6