Joy in the Journey: A Study of Philippians
The Christian's Future: Glorification (Philippians 3:17-21)
Brandon Ayers

¹⁷ Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. ¹⁸ For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹ Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. ²⁰ But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.

3. We will be like who we _____.

Discussion Questions

1. Who is someone in your faith walk who you aim to imitate? What about the way they lead their life makes you want to do so?
2. What is the posture of your heart towards those who reject the Gospel? Is it aligned with that of Paul here, and of Jesus throughout his ministry?
3. How does your hope in things to come (or faith in present spiritual realities) determine the way you live today? How can you grow in that?

Philippians 3:17-21

¹⁷Join in imitating me, brothers, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. ¹⁸For I have often told you, and now say again with tears, that many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹Their end is destruction; their god is their stomach; their glory is in their shame. They are focused on earthly things, ²⁰but our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. ²¹He will transform the body of our humble condition into the likeness of His glorious body, by the power that enables Him to subject everything to Himself.

1) We will take after who we watch
after

2) We will end up where we walk to.

3) We will be like who we wait on.
