Freedom is moving from _____ like a slave to _____ like a son.

Discussion:

1. What areas of your life do you still obey because you're forced to? Or, what areas of your life does your heart need to be transformed to desire obedience?
2. Who has been and/or currently is a good example of godliness in your life? How have they influenced your Christian growth?
3. How would you define freedom? What are some good and bad examples of different views of freedom you can identify – in the church, in your home, at your work, in the media, in entertainment/sports, in government?
