

The Parable of the Lowest Seat - Luke 14:7-14
Dr. Doug Bischoff

1) God is always more interested in your _____ than _____.

2) When we _____ people (or ourselves) _____ we sin!

- What are some ways we use to determine value in people?
- How likely is it that we also judge ourselves by the same standard?

3) We are to treat people _____ because we will be _____.

Questions for Real Life

- 1) If God is more interested in my heart than anything else about me, what am I doing on a regular basis (or what could I be doing) to invest in the health of my heart?
- 2) What has God spoke to me today about how I judge or value people and what do I need to do about that?
- 3) How can I treat people more like Jesus does without the thought of being repaid? Apply this to spouse, children, employees, employer, neighbors.
