How To Use These

Listen, we know it's a long weekend with A LOT to take in! Our hope is that you will take some intentional time with your students to dig in and unpack what they hear throughout the weekend. We believe there is power in small group times, and want to help you maximize those times.

In this resource we have included some discussion starter questions that highlight some of the main points from each session. They are broken down into each day of the convention. Utilize these as fits best for your group. Whatever time of the day works best.

Friday

What is something that stood out to you tonight?

Our speaker, Brock, talked about what the world tells us will bring us happiness. What are things you thought would make you happy but didn't?

Tonight we talked about “drinking the poison” - believing the lies of the world.

Can you stop drinking the poison?

What lie are you ready to put down?

How do you feel after you drink the poison? How does the poison affect you?

Why do you think we make others feel guilty when we're trying to help them change?

Are you more willing to make a change when you're guilted into it or when you feel safe and have support?

Saturday

Session 2 Lie: “God has had enough with me!”

We unpacked the story of the Prodigal Son in the evening session.

Have you had a Prodigal moment yet? How so?

Have you been the older brother? How so?

How can you get on the road back? What would have to change?

Session 3 Lie: “I’m suffering...therefore, God must not love me enough.”

In the morning session we talked a lot about suffering. What is something that you consider suffering when it’s happening, but when you think about it afterwards - it wasn’t so much suffering but inconvenience?

When has your faith brought you hope in a bad situation?

What is something you went through that you don’t think you could’ve gotten through without help?

Sunday

Have you ever thought that you have to impress God? Why?
How have you tried to impress Him?

This morning we talked a lot about believing we are good enough to be used by God. Do you struggle to believe God would use you? Why?

Brock talked about 3 childlike things we need: Dependence, Wonder, and Imagination.

- How dependent are you on God?
- What are the things that cause you to wonder at the goodness of God? When was the last time you sat in wonder before God?
- Do you have the imagination to know that God WANTS to use your life to change the world?

We heard the story of the fish and the loaves from John 6
What little do you have that - if you fully surrendered it into the hand of Jesus - He could do something miraculous?

How can you get on the road back? What would have to change?
