

The Gospel of Mark
Discussion Questions – November 14, 2021

1. What did you think and/or how did you feel about today's reading and teaching?
2. What are the implications in our own lives personally and as the people of SJD?
3. Are we truly following the commandments of God and not getting hung up on the traditions of men in our faith?
4. Do we trust in God's mercy even though we may feel, as in the case of the Syrophenician woman, that we don't deserve it?
5. Do we trust God to heal us, not just miraculously, but with the help of those who use human knowledge and wisdom to help us?
6. Jesus is preparing to turn toward Jerusalem and the cross. Are we prepared to pick up our own cross and follow him?
