

Deuteronomy 14

Small Group Questions

1. What struck you about this week study?
2. Chapter 14 could be read to suggest that some of God's creation is "abominable." Discuss whether, and if so how, God's creation could be considered an abomination.
3. Explain ways in which you go about discerning what is good or holy versus that which is evil or unholy?
4. Describe what is your best personal protection?
5. Considering Verse 21, can you think of something that should be "off limits" to you as a Christian but that might be helpful to others?
6. Explain how, if at all, your walk as a Christian has set you apart from those around you who are non-believers. Has that ever allowed you the opportunity to speak about your relationship with Jesus?
