THE THREAD

Weaving Sunday's message through your week

Discussion Questions:

Passage: Exodus 13:17–14:31

Theme: Crossing the Red Sea

Truths this passage teaches us:

1. God knows where he is going (13:17–14:4).
2. God knows what he is doing (14:5–9).
3. God fights for his people (14:10–29).

Point of the Passage: We must see that God's miraculous works save those who are his but destroy those who oppose him (14:30).

Response (14:31):

- Fear God
- Trust

1. According to 13:17–14:4, why does God lead the children of Israel in the direction that he does? What does this indicate about his leading in our lives today?

2. In 14:5–9, God directs his people in such a way as to provoke Pharaoh to attack them. Do you think that he still does this today in leading his people? How?

3. Do you respond more like the people (14:10–12) or Moses (13–14) when you are confronted with life-altering news or decisions? (Note: even though the people forget or fail to acknowledge God's ability, he still delivers)

4. What encouragements do you take from 14:14?

5. How do you react to a verse like 14:30 with its dual outcome?

6. What should the responses in 14:31 look like in the situations you face today?
