10.29.17 Sermon: God reaffirms and works through his chosen one.

Passage: Exodus 6:2–7:13

Series: “HOLY”

Title: God reaffirms and works through his chosen one.

How?

God reminds his holy ones who he is and what he will do for them (6:2–27)
Response: Believe

God announces judgment on those who fail to acknowledge him (6:28–7:7)
Response: Speak

God demonstrates that he can defeat anything (7:8–13).
Response: Persevere

We need to trust and declare that God is who he says and will do what he has promised even as many will not heed our testimony.

Discussion Questions:

1. From 6:1–13, what do we learn about who God is and what he does?
2. What presently in your life causes you to doubt the promises of God?
3. From this text (especially 6:2–5), how does the transformation from a “head-knowledge” of God into a relationship with him occur?
4. How do God’s actions towards Pharaoh and the Egyptians and Pharaoh’s response in 7:1–13 encourage you in a world that rejects God? Share an example or two from our present context or your own experience?
