9.24.17 Sermon: Introducing Holiness

Passage: Exodus 1:1–22

Series: “HOLY”

Title: “Let the Exodus Begin”

God fulfills his promises (1:1–7).

The wicked will violently oppose God's plans (1:8–14).

As his children, we must choose to fear God above all else (1:15–22).

Main Idea:

As his holy people, trust God will accomplish his purposes no matter what life looks like at the time.

Discussion Questions:

1. What prior themes from Genesis are essential for properly understanding Exodus?
2. In light of Genesis 1:28; 9:1, 7, what is the author of Exodus signaling to us in Exodus 1:1–7?
3. Why do you think that the author begins Exodus with so little mention of God (he isn't mentioned until v. 17; and he doesn't act overtly in this story)? In what ways should this affect our understanding of how God works today?
4. How does wickedness oppose God's plans in our context today?
5. Are there times today that we must act on our fear of God when society or even government might demand that we do otherwise? List some instances.
