Connect: What do you find that takes up a lot of your time? Where are you busy? What is God calling you to do considering your busyness?

Engage: Joe shared with us 2 questions that we should consider.

1. What is the thing if you lost it would drain from your life?
2. What thing do you seek, to give you what only God can really give?

Every yoke besides Jesus turns into slavery. Jesus has never led people into exhaustion or discouragement? Do you believe these statements?

Joe shared with us 3 lessons of Jesus.

1. The lesson of the birds Matt.6:28
 - A. Give up the illusion that you control ever thing. How do you struggle with control?
 - B. Dallas Willard quote: We do not control our outcomes, and we are not responsible for them, we are only responsible for the outcomes.
 - C. What does control look like for you?
2. The Lesson of dust Psalm 103:10, 14
 - A. You're not perfect. Where have you struggled with perfection?
 - B. Have you struggled with expecting others to be perfect? How did that work out of you?
3. The Lesson of the grass. Matt. 6:28
 - A. If I am going to live the way God wants me to- it better be now?
 - B. What is the driving value of your life?
 - C. Where do you need to slow down so Jesus can catch up to your soul?

Apply: What is the invitation this week for you? Where do you think God wants you press into these 3 lessons this week? Which one is the hardest for you to grasp? Where do you want God to show up for you in this lesson?
