

God Knows Everything (Omnipresent)

7/13/25 – Dr Jay Klopfenstein

Psalm 139: 1-6, 17-18, 23-24,

Connect: What do you think of the statement God knows everything? Where is one area of your life where you have a hard time believing God knows everything – has it been your past, your present or your future?

Engage: Reread Psalm 139:

Dr Jay talked about 3 observations.

1. God is all Knowing.
 - a. Where have you seen God as all knowing.
 - b. If God knows the needles on a tree and the hair on your head – how much more does He care about you! Matt. 10:29 –
 - c. God has chosen to know us thoroughly and intimately -How do you feel about that He knows you intimately and thoroughly? is it scary or comforting?
2. God knows the details of our lives.
 - a. God knows every thought before it even enters our mind – knows the why and acquainted with all my ways. – How does that make you feel? Are there areas that cause shame if you really think about God knowing those thoughts? Is there sin in your thoughts? Pride? Judgement? Addictions? Where do you think God is in those thoughts?
3. Nothing escapes God's knowledge
 - a. God hems us in. We cannot escape no matter how hard we try. How does that make you feel?

Dr Jay ended with 4 responses.

1. I should feel small. Vs 6.
 - a. He talked about Paul and his realization of his insignificance.
1 Cor 15:9, 1 Tim 1:12-14
 - b. How does that sit with you that we should see ourselves as small?
 - c. Can you relate to Paul?
2. I should feel loved. Vs 17-18
Where do you feel loved by God? What is that like for you?
Do you feel loved by God? If not why?
3. Pursue personal holiness. Vs 23-24
 - a. How are you doing with personal holiness? Do you have areas of growth and how can we grow?
4. I should pursue a relationship with God. Phil. 3:7-11
 - a. Everything that is not Jesus is dung. How do you respond to that statement?
 - b. Do you rank anything above Him?
 - c. How is your relationship with God? Is it duty or a love relationship for you?
