

2. How can you associate with immoral unbelievers and not be influenced into their bad habits and actions? What "fences: can you place around yourself for protection?

3. How will you know if your fences are effective or not?

4. When someone claims to be a believer and yet lives like they are not, why is that a particularly dangerous relationship for a believer?

Read 2 Corinthians 6:14–7:1.

5. Does being "unequally yoked" with an unbeliever only apply to marriage? List some other ways a believer could be unequally bound to an unbeliever.

6. What is the remedy for being unequally yoked according to verse 17? Is this always possible or are there higher principles that might sometimes apply?

7. Loving someone doesn't mean allowing them to abuse you. Why is enabling someone to sin against you or others wrong? (See Genesis 9:6, Ephesians 5:11)

Action Steps:

1. Is there possibly a relationship in your life that you should consider limiting because of the adverse moral influence or burnout it is causing?

2. Is there a place you frequent that tends to compromise your walk with God? Are you willing to avoid that place in the future? Who will you ask to hold you accountable for this decision?
