A portrait of John Hancock, a Founding Father of the United States. He is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark coat with gold embroidery and a white cravat. He has a powdered wig and is looking slightly to the right.

In circumstances dark as these, it becomes us, as Men and Christians, to reflect that, whilst every prudent Measure should be taken to ward off the impending judgements... All confidence must be withheld from the Means we use; and reposed only on the GOD who rules in the Armies of Heaven, and without whose Blessing and best human Counsels are but Foolishness--and all created Power Vanity

John Hancock, April 15, 1775
