>>> Psalm 51:4-6 (NIV)

<sup>4</sup> Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight; so you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge. <sup>5</sup> Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. <sup>6</sup> Yet you desired faithfulness even in the womb; you taught me wisdom in that secret place.

7

>>> Psalm 51:10-13 (NIV)

<sup>10</sup> Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. <sup>11</sup> Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. <sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. <sup>13</sup> Then I will teach transgressors your ways, so that sinners will turn back to you.

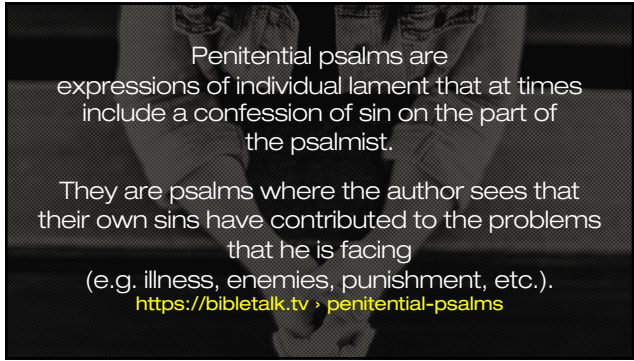

8

>>> Psalm 51:16-17 (NIV)

<sup>16</sup> You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. <sup>17</sup> My sacrifice, O God, is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart you, God, will not despise.

Penitential psalms are expressions of individual lament that at times include a confession of sin on the part of the psalmist.

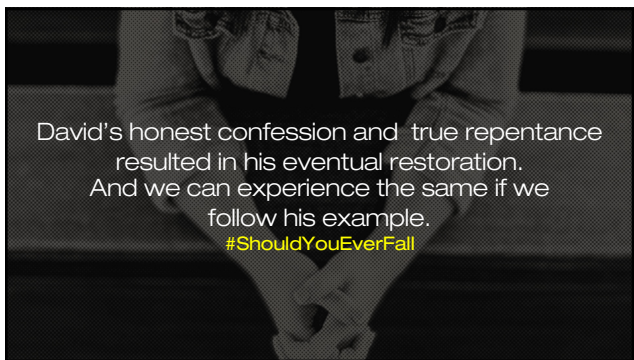

They are psalms where the author sees that their own sins have contributed to the problems that he is facing (e.g. illness, enemies, punishment, etc.).

Anybody who's anybody in Scripture has stumbled, made mistakes or fallen.
Thankfully the Lord is full of grace and mercy.
The mistakes made didn't define them.
God's love and faithfulness did.

There is not a righteous person on earth who always does good and never sins.

18

>>> 1 John 1:8 (NCV)

If we say we have no sin, we are fooling ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

19

Get this friends.

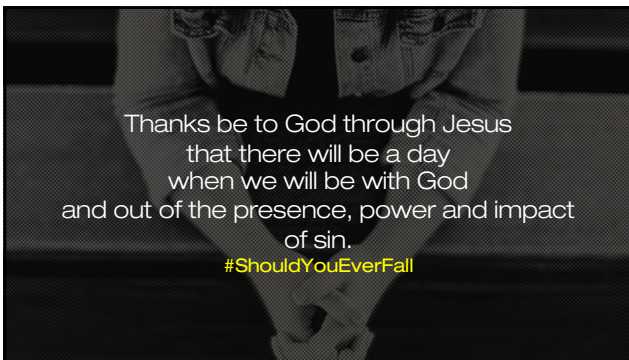

We live in a fallen world.

As a result, we are in the environment of sin.

Therefore, through Christ Jesus, the Word and the work of the Holy Spirit, we are able to navigate such an environment with hope and power.

#ShouldYouEverFall

Thanks be to God through Jesus that there will be a day when we will be with God and out of the presence, power and impact of sin.
