Psalm 15 | NIV

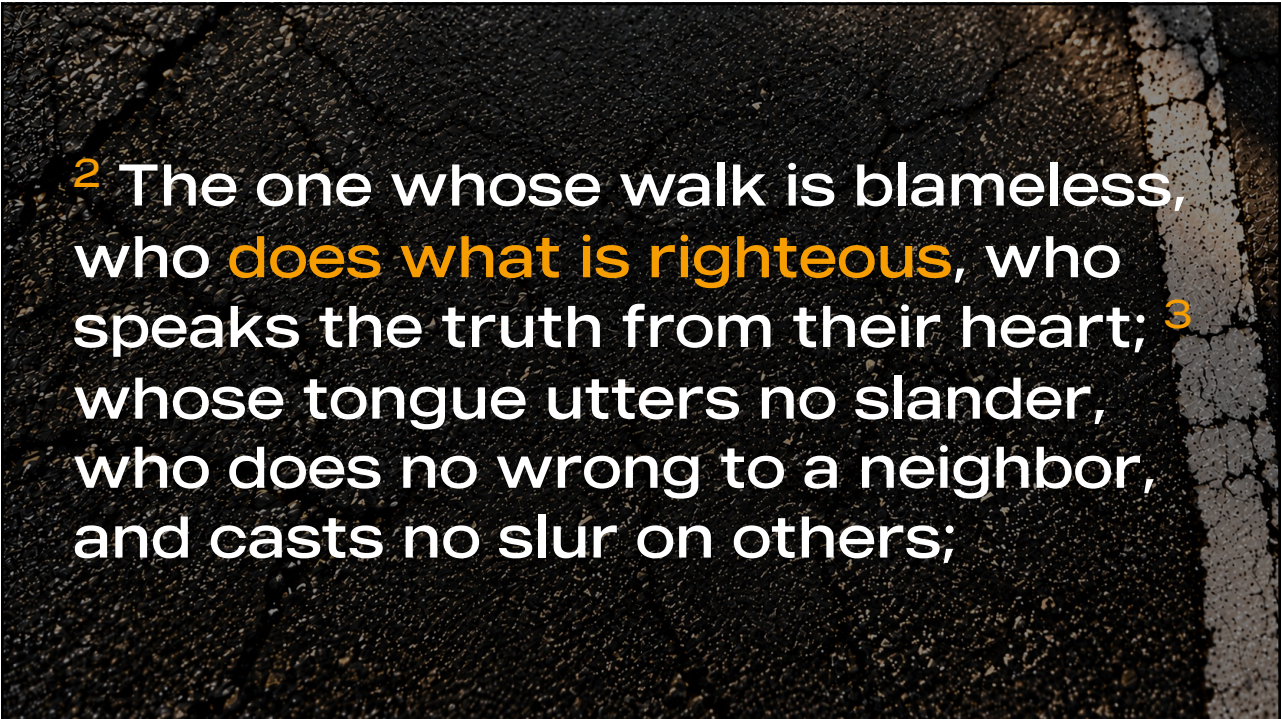

7

Psalm 15 | NIV

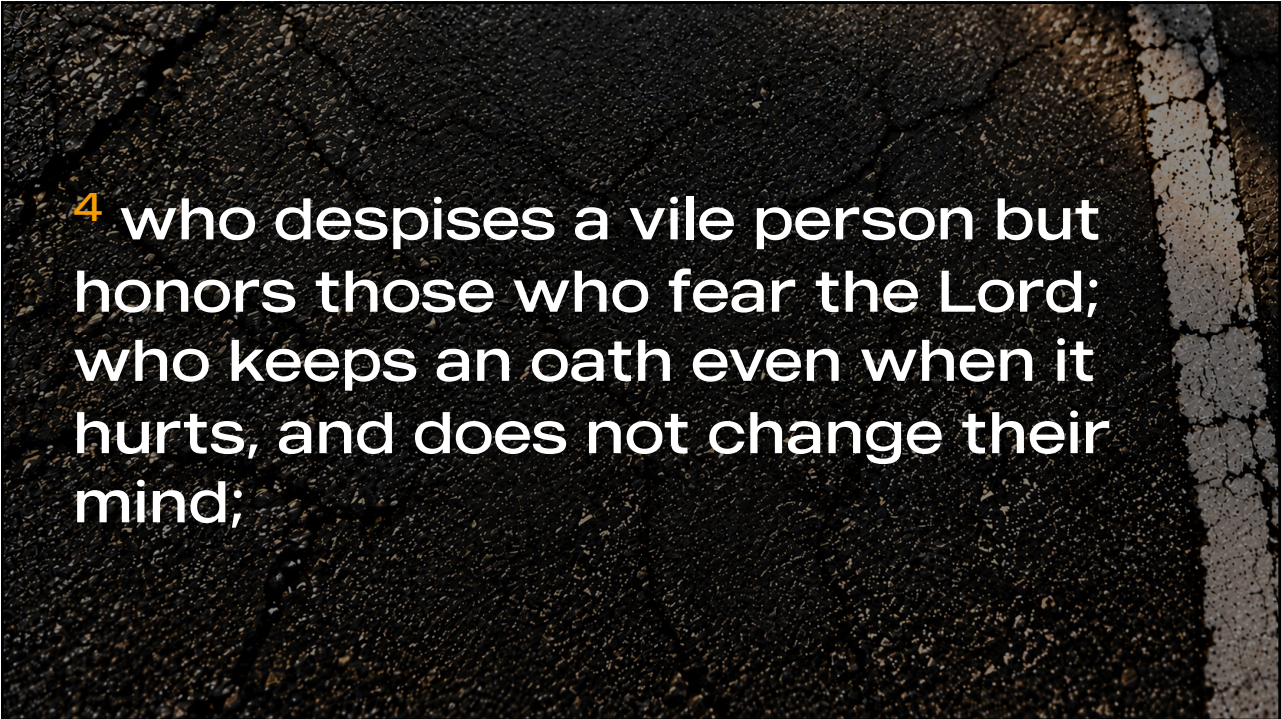

¹ Lord, who may dwell in your sacred tent? Who may live on your holy mountain?

8

² The one whose walk is blameless, who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from their heart; ³
whose tongue utters no slander,
who does no wrong to a neighbor,
and casts no slur on others;

9

⁴ who despises a vile person but honors those who fear the Lord;
who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and does not change their mind;

10

5 who lends money to the poor without interest; who does not accept a bribe against the innocent. Whoever does these things will never be shaken.

11

A righteous life is one that's lived with stability and purpose. It's not one that's shifty, selfish, or blatantly disrespectful to oneself or others.

1 Peter 1:14-16 | ERV

14 In the past you did not have the understanding you have now, so you did the evil things you wanted to do. But now you are children of God, so you should obey him and not live the way you did before.

13

15 Be holy in everything you do, just as God is holy. He is the one who chose you. 16 In the Scriptures God says, "Be holy, because I am holy."

14

Our standard isn't the culture.
Our standard isn't even
one another.
Our standard isn't even the person sitting next to us.
Our standard is Christ alone.

We need to stop looking at
and listening to everybody else
and instead gaze upon Jesus.
He's our model, our goal,

True humanity was meant to be.

At some point you can't keep praying for God to deliver us from [4]

A righteous life
will always involve you
FALLING MORE AND MORE IN LOVE WITH JESUS

to the point where you love what he loves
and hates what he hates.

24

The goal isn't just to stop loving sin.
The goal is to fall so deeply in love with Jesus that sin can't even compete.

He has been very kind and patient,
waiting for you to change, but you think nothing of his kindness.

32

Listen friends.
You can't knowingly live foul and call for or claim God's favor because his goodness spurs on our desire to be more godly.

see how much sin you can get
