

From the Beginning: “The Consequences of Sin”

Genesis 6:5-22

May 28, 2023

I. God will judge sin.

Isaiah 46:9-10

Matthew 5:48

Jeremiah 32:17

Isaiah 43:15

II. God offers grace in the midst of judgment.

1. Noah walked with God.
2. Noah listened to God.
3. Noah was given responsibilities as a result of his walk.
4. God was faithful to His covenant with Noah and preserved him and his family .

LET’S GO DEEPER:

1. Why is it important that our doctrine is consistent with what we know about God? What problems can we run into if it is not?
2. What are some of the things we can learn from Noah that will help us live out our faith today?
3. Why was it important that Noah followed God's instructions for the building of the arc and gathering the animals?
4. Why is it important to understand how Noah and the arc point forward to Jesus and the gospel?
5. Why does God have to judge sin, and what would be the ramifications if He did not?
