

A Bright Future
Isaiah 59:21-60:7,15-19

Why is the future bright?

- I. An unbreakable promise
  - A. God's promise to his Son (59:21, 60:1)
  - B. Hope from this unbreakable promise
- II. An astonishing transformation
  - A. From enemies to evangelists (v. 6-7, 15-18)
  - B. Expecting transformation
- III. The glory of God
  - A. No need of sun or moon (v. 19; Rev. 21:22-23)
  - B. Parables of God's glory

Application Guide:

1. How have broken promises allowed cynicism and pessimism to fill your heart? Into what circumstance do you need God's unbreakable promise with his Son to speak?
2. How have you lost sight of the astonishing transformation that God is bringing about through the person and work of his son Jesus Christ? Who have you written off? In what situation have you lost hope for change?
3. Is the vision of God's glorious future before you? Why or why not? What steals your gaze from this hope-producing vision?
