THE BOOK OF PHILIPPIANS

Philippians 2

⁵ Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, ⁶ who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷ but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. ⁸ And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Christ is better than us, but He counted Himself as less than us in order to do what was best for us.

Christ is better than us, but He counted Himself as less than us in order to do what was best for us.

-How dare you not do that for someone else?

Christ is better than us, but He counted Himself as less than us in order to do what was best for us.

-How dare you not do that for someone else?

-How dare your heart not be completely captivated with love for Christ?

Christ is better than us, but He counted Himself as less than us in order to do what was best for us.

-How dare you not do that for someone else?

-How dare your heart not be completely captivated with love for Christ?

-How dare you not give yourself to worshipping Jesus with every part of your life?

⁹ Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹ and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
