

Sermon Series: Are You Really Adventist?

Week 5: Don't Touch My Remote

Big Idea

God gave you the freedom to choose Him.

The dragon uses coercion — but Christ leads by invitation.

The one who holds the remote has the power.

Key Scriptures

- John 8:36 — “So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.”
- Galatians 5:1 — “It is for freedom that Christ has set us free...”
- Revelation 13:16–17 — Coercion and control by the beast.
- Revelation 14:1 — The Lamb with those who freely choose Him.
- Joshua 24:15 — “Choose this day whom you will serve.”

How to Guard Your Remote This Week

1. GUARD IT

Don't let fear, culture, politics, or guilt control your choices.

Ask yourself: Who or what is holding my remote today?

2. USE IT

Make daily choices that align with your faith.

Practice flipping the channel: when shame, anger, or anxiety come on—switch to prayer, Scripture, or worship.

3. AIM IT

A remote only works when pointed at the source.

Keep your life aimed at Jesus through prayer, Sabbath rest, and service.

Reflection Question

Who is holding your remote?

Is it fear, guilt, culture, or Christ?

Final Word

“Don't touch my remote.”

Hold on to the freedom Christ gave you.

Choose the Lamb... because He chose you first.
