When The Church Speaks Up

1 Kings 18:16-21

INTRODUCTION

From reading the story of Elijah, we can see how impactful it is when those of us in the Church speak up. As long as we stay silent, our world will become increasingly more evil and will venture further and further away from God. That is why it's so important that we use our voice to point others to Christ and His truth. So as we look at Elijah's story in this message, I would encourage you to pay special attention to the repercussions of his choice to speak up as part of the Church, and as you do, figure out ways you can emulate his courage and his boldness to speak up on behalf the Church in your own life.

KEY POINTS

1. When the church speaks up, wickedness is exposed.
