Mission Committe Update:

Thanksgiving will look different this year. We don't know what that will be as the food committee is working with the missions and outreach committee. On another but related note is that the Seeds of Hope fundraisers seem to have dried up this year. Last year both the thanksgiving meal proceeds and the lunch with John and Susan Chalkis raised a considerable amount for SOH ($12704.67). So far this year not much has been raised ($270). Check out the Seeds of Hope website; we have been supporting this very worthwhile outreach to Zambia specifically sponsoring Emma house (some of you know the young ladies in this house personally). This support has always been fundraised outside of budget and relied on creative people raising funds. The mission committee is looking for a champion for Seeds of Hope fundraising; talk to Maggie, Evan or Dave.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Pray for the farmers, as they are in the middle of harvest. Pray for a good crop & good weather so they can get the crops harvested before winter.
