

DAY 6

STOP LOOKING AT YOUR CIRCUMSTANCES

TRUE / FALSE — 10 QUESTIONS

Key Scripture — 2 Corinthians 4:18 AMPC

“Since we consider and look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are visible are temporal (brief and fleeting), but the things that are invisible are deathless and everlasting.”

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Read each statement carefully. Mark TRUE or FALSE. No answers are provided on this test.

1. According to 2 Corinthians 4:18, believers are to focus only on the circumstances they can see.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

2. The things we see in the natural are temporary, while the unseen things are eternal.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

3. Looking continually at bills, numbers, and what is lacking can begin to shape what a person believes.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

4. Faith requires a believer to pretend that difficult circumstances do not exist.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

5. The lesson teaches that circumstances are not our source—God is our source.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

6. When our focus shifts away from God's Word and onto circumstances, our faith and expectation can begin to weaken.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

7. 2 Corinthians 4:18 teaches that what we presently see can and will change when compared with what is eternal.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

8. Faith refuses to allow circumstances to determine what we believe about God's promises.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

9. The lesson's prayer encourages believers to fix their eyes on God's Word rather than only on what they see in the natural.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■

10. One practical action from this lesson is to find a Scripture concerning God's provision, write it down, and read it aloud regularly.

TRUE ■ FALSE ■