b) Presence –

a) Promise – Passing between two animal carcasses (Genesis 15)

(1) - “if I don't hold up my end of the _____, may it be done to me as it was done to these _____.”¹

(2) Only God takes on the _____ of the curses of the covenant.

(3) This is a covenant God will deliver on _____ of Abraham's obedience.

¹ But notice that Abraham does not pass through the dead animals. Only God does. And notice that there are no obligations for Abraham to keep up his end of the covenant. There are only promises coming down from God! This covenant is completely unilateral, in that God has set all the terms, and entirely unconditional. God will keep these promises regardless of Abraham's and his descendants' actions. Now, this does not mean that Abraham's descendants will have no obligations at all. They will receive some duties in Genesis 17, but the bulk of Israel's covenant responsibilities will be given from Mount Sinai, after God leads them out of slavery through His servant Moses. More on that later. The point is that the promise comes before the obligations. So while Israel has real duties, and there will be real consequences if they are not faithful, the promises will still stand. This is because God's plan of redemption, of which this is a part, depends on His grace and His desire to renew the universe with a renewed humanity in it. It does not depend on sinful man. We've seen how far sinful man has gotten. Galatians 3:17-18: “The law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise. For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on a promise; but God in his grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.”
