January 25, 2026 (Silverton)

SUMMARY

This sermon explores the third commandment—"You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain"—revealing that it encompasses far more than avoiding profanity. The pastor emphasizes that as Christians, we bear the name of Christ and must live lives that match this sacred identity. God's name represents His character, authority, presence, and promises. Taking His name in vain occurs not only through careless words but through actions that contradict our Christian profession. Despite our failures to honor God's name, the gospel message provides hope: through Jesus Christ, God vindicates His holy name by cleansing, restoring, and transforming those who have profaned it. The sermon calls believers to stop cheapening God's name and instead to proclaim "Jesus be the name" in every word and deed, allowing the Holy Spirit to help us live authentically as representatives of Christ.
