

Main Point

In order to show true community to our world, we must protect our community as a church

Our salvation through Christ is what binds us together as a community of believers

-We show the world true community when we share the love of Jesus

We are called to contend for the faith, not be content in our faith

-Contending for the faith will help us stand firm against people, principles, and ideas that could keep us from being effective witnesses for Christ
