Questions

1. What stood out to you in this passage or in the message this week? Why?
2. How often have you thought of Jesus in all three descriptions noted above?
3. We most often consider Jesus as our Redeemer, and rightly we should. But He is also Lord and King. What does that mean to you?
4. How have you perceived that Jesus is going to judge mankind? That He is the harsh, uncaring judge, or that He is a righteous, compassionate judge who give people time to understand that judgment will occur?
5. How has your heart changed regarding the place that Jesus must occupy in our hearts, minds and souls?
