Questions

1. What stood out to you in this passage or in the message this week? Why?
2. Today, society seems to be falling apart faster and faster. How would you evaluate your ability to love others, all others, even in the present darkness in which society seems to be engulfed?
3. Have you often found it hard to obey God and love others? After all, it appears there are many unlovable people in the world. How do you reconcile these two seeming contradictions?
4. Describe how you view the “riches you possess in Christ Jesus?”
5. For John there is no twilight. There is either light or darkness, love or hatred. Even indifference is not love ... Describe how you deal with these “black and white” absolutes as you love others, both in and out of the church.
