Questions

1. What stood out to you in this passage or in the message this week? Why?
2. John writes that when Jesus returns, He expects to find the believers faithful to their calling. Think about how you anticipate His return. If He came today...what would He say to you about your faithfulness?
3. How do you understand the doctrine of sanctification? How does that apply to how you are growing in Christ?
4. When we are the recipient of God's love, we, in turn, ought to reflect this love toward God and our neighbors. Thinking about your growth, how do you reflect God's love back to Him and others?
5. Do you glorify Him with growing to be like Him? Becoming like Him, expecting Him to come and hear our account of our faithfulness, what priority do you place on your life in terms of being found faithful in this?
