

“Be My Witnesses”

Colossians 4:2-6

Colossians 4:2-6 – “Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving; ³praying at the same time for us as well, that God will open up to us a door for the word, so that we may speak forth the mystery of Christ, for which I have also been imprisoned; ⁴that I may make it clear in the way I ought to speak.

⁵Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity. ⁶Let your speech always be with grace, as though seasoned with salt, so that you will know how you should respond to each person.”

FOR FURTHER REFLECTION:

1. In what ways do Zechariah 4:6-7 and John 6:44 make a strong case for why intercessory prayer is so important in witnessing?
2. How have you in the past helped outsiders identify their spiritual standing with God? Going forward, how might today's message help you bring spiritual matters into your everyday conversations?
3. What common obstacles do you see in Luke 5:29-32 that often stand in the way of greater evangelistic impact?
4. How do you hope to make greater gospel investments in the future in the lives of unbelievers?
5. What do you hope to do in the coming days to invite unbelievers to take their next step toward Christ?
