

Daniel was named one of the 3 vice-regents serving directly under the king. Being filled with spirit and intelligence, Daniel outclassed the other leaders.

In their jealousy, they conspired to ruin him. When they were unable to find any evidence of wrongdoing, they enticed the king to make a law they knew Daniel would not obey.

Knowing the law had passed, Daniel prayed anyway and was thrown into the den of lions.

If you were on trial for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?

Daniel had faith before the den - continuing in his daily pattern of prayer.

Set your heart on what is broken and trust that God can breathe life back into it.

Daniel prayed at the window facing towards the ruins of his beloved Jerusalem, continuing to trust God.

Have a heart of humility.

We make time in our lives for the things that are important to us.

How often do you take the time to humbly bow down to God in prayer?

Trust in the unseen.

Daniel's sight was limited when he was in the den. He had to fully trust in God even though he couldn't see what was going on around him.

Trust in the God who shuts the mouths of lions.
