

Jesus had just finished feeding the thousands fishes and loaves and performed many other miracles.

Yet when He invited them to believe in Him as the One sent from God they asked Him to give them a sign or miracle to prove it. After all, they argued, Moses gave them bread from Heaven to eat.

Jesus replied... _____

"Moses didn't do that. God did."

He continued... _____

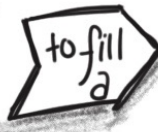

"I AM the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry again."

And even though you have seen my works, you still don't believe."

Many of us only want the benefits we get from a life following Jesus without the commitment of a more intimate relationship with Him.

Even with the good things right in front of us, we still say it's not good enough and wish for the things that keep us in bondage.

We're looking to bios (perishable) things  zoe (eternal) need.

We look for the fish and loaves when we should be looking for the One who created them.

We seek the temporary and end up still feeling empty and hungry.

These temporary things are not what satisfy.

"I AM the One who satisfies."

When they saw He was not there to bring their worldly desires, many turned away and no longer walked with Him.

Then Jesus turned to the twelve and asked them... _____

"Will you leave me, too?"

Then Peter replied... _____

"To whom would we go? We believe, and we know You are the Holy One of God."

In our pursuit of enough Jesus has always been enough.
