

“When Peter came to Antioch, I confronted him to his face because he had given in to peer pressure from legalistic Jews not to associate with the non-Jews.

This is not the gospel.

The life I live now is because Christ loved me and gave His life for me. If a person can be made right through the Law, it means that Christ died for nothing!”

What does the word
“gospel” mean to you?

IT'S NOT

- ↳ a list of do's and don'ts.
- ↳ advice for how to live.
- ↳ something you have to achieve.

IT IS Good News!

You don't have to do anything, because Christ already did everything.

All of the world's religions tell you what you need to do to find God.

The gospel says...

“I'm God and I sought you out because I love you.”

Just trust He did it and accept His free gift.

It will bring awareness.

When the gospel moves from your head to your heart, it will be like being able  to see for the first time.

“It would seem that Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.”

--C.S. Lewis, The Weight of Glory

It will bring action.

When the gospel moves from your head to your heart, it will change your motivation from ~

“What can I get away with?”

~to~

“I get to do this because the God I love sought me out and brought me out of captivity.”
