

Jesus knew very well from experience that a prophet is not respected in his hometown.

So when He arrived, the Galileans welcomed Him, but only because they were impressed at what He had done at the feast. They didn't really have a clue who He was or what He was up to.

Meanwhile, a certain official from the king's court in Capernaum had a son who was on the brink of death. When he heard Jesus was close, he went to Him and asked if He would heal him.

Jesus responded...
"Unless you people are dazzled by a miracle, you refuse to believe."

But the court official persisted.

Jesus then replied...
"Go home. Your son lives!"

He returned home to find that his son began recovering at the same time Jesus spoke that he lives.

Then the official and his entire household believed. This was the second public sign Jesus gave.

Whoever BELIEVES will have eternal life.

(John 3:16)

NOT
whoever does these things or lives this way.

Our God is a God of works.
Even when we can't see it, He's working.

- 1 The witnesses didn't see the moment the water turned to wine, but they tasted and saw the results.
- 2 The official didn't see the moment his son was healed, but saw the results when he arrived home.

Where do you place your faith?

It's so hard to 'BELIEVE' when your life is falling apart around you

Remember how He's been there in the past, and have faith in what's to come.

God is using your story to bring about things greater than your greatest imaginings.

Will you trust Him?
