

"I AM the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for His sheep. A hired hand will run away at the first sign of danger because he's only working for the money and doesn't really care for the sheep.

I know my own sheep and they know me, just as my Father knows me and I know the Father.

So I sacrifice my life for the sheep."

Many christians have turned Jesus into a brand, and have started worshipping a copy of a copy of a copy that has been stripped away of the color and life of the real person.

What version of Jesus do you serve?

The True Jesus OR A copy of a copy of a copy

With this example, Jesus was calling out the religious elite for putting their own agenda ahead of everyone else - for using people as tools for their own power, influence and attention.

The True Jesus gives US His everything and expects NOTHING in return.

It's not often you get something absolutely free -

No strings attached.

You can come to Him
- in your doubts
- in your brokenness
He loves you where you are.

Are you like the Good Shepherd or are you just a Hired Hand?

Maybe you've met people who you thought were true Christ followers, but were actually just hired hands. Maybe you were hurt and left the church because of it.

The Good Shepherd and His sheep have a relationship of trust and steadfast closeness.

He wants a relationship with you.
