

There was a wedding in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was a guest, along with Him and His disciples.

When they started running low on wine at the wedding banquet, Jesus' mother told Him, "They're just about out of wine."

Jesus said, "What does this have to do with us? This isn't yet my time."

Regardless, she sent the servants to Jesus and said, "Whatever He tells you, do it."

There were six thirty-gallon stoneware pots used in ritual cleansing. Jesus told the servants to fill the pots with water, and they did.

"Now fill your pitchers and take them to the host," and they did as He instructed.

When the host tasted the wine, he complimented the bridegroom on the great quality.

This was His first sign, and His disciples believed in Him.

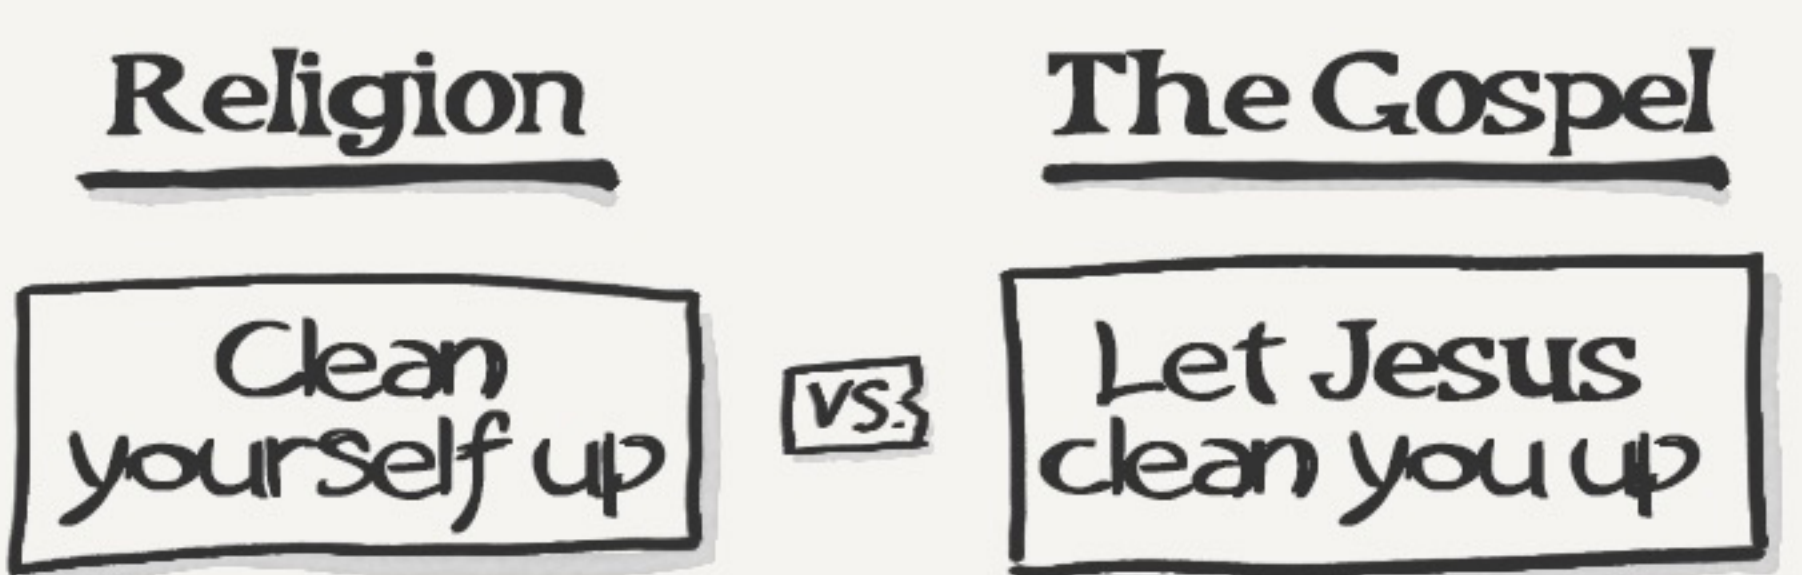

Many things in this life promise satisfaction but result in destruction.

Where do you go when you're running low?

Jesus' mother watched Him grow up, and had faith in Him.

God became human and moved into the neighborhood.

Jesus was well-liked among the locals in the community.

Jesus brings

AND purpose.

When you're running low, go to Jesus and whatever He tells you, do it.
