

My dear brothers and sisters:
Not many of you should become teachers in the church, for we who teach will be judged more strictly.

Indeed, we all make many mistakes. If we could control our tongues, we would be perfect and could also control ourselves in every other way.

We can make a large horse go anywhere with a small bit, and a huge ship is turned by a small rudder.

Like a small spark can set a great forest fire, so the tongue can lead to destruction.

With the same mouth comes both blessings and curses. You can't draw fresh water from a salty spring.

How well are you tending your tongue?

The tongue is both powerful and destructive.

What you say
matters.

Nothing causes more devastation than an unbridled tongue.

Words can bring...

A massive ship can be steered by a small rudder.

Do your words build up or tear down?

How are your words impacting people?

Let Jesus change your heart and remove the poison from your life.

Things won't change until you change your source and let Him do His work in you.

He's waiting for you.
