

After Judas had left to go betray Jesus, Jesus said to the remaining eleven...

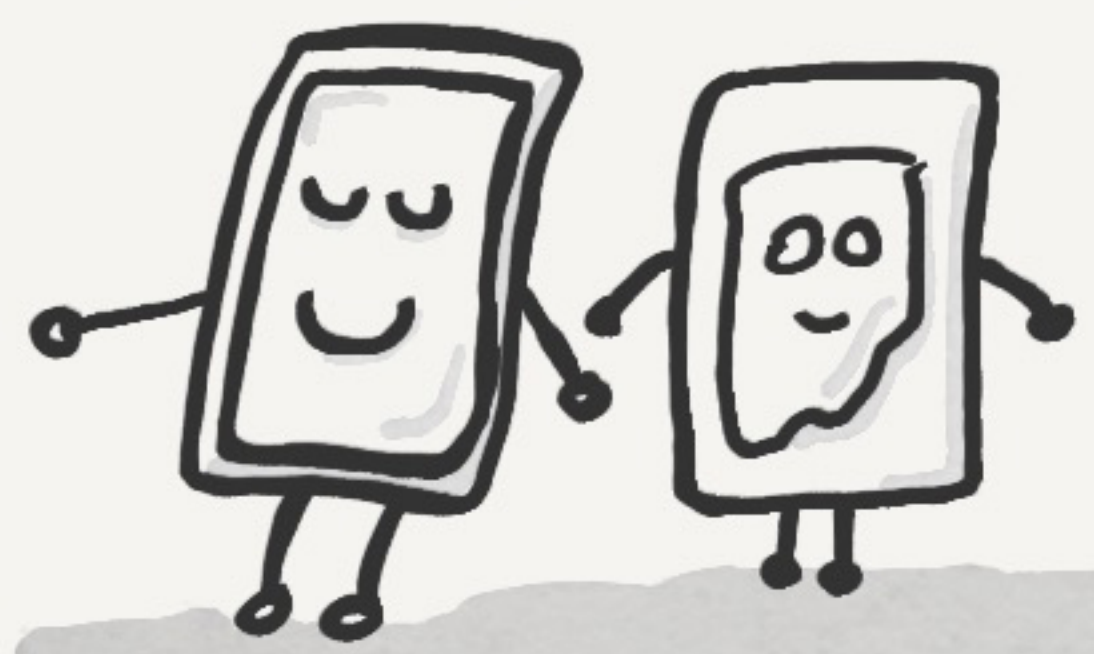

"Let me give you a new command.

Love one another.

In the same way I love you, you love one another.

This is how everyone will recognize that you are my disciples - when they see the love you have for each other."

People watch us to see if we're the REAL DEAL or just a cheap knock-off.

Can people identify you as a disciple of Christ?

How well are you loving others?

SOCIETY vs. JESUS

I'll love you...

if you...

no matter what.

If you offend me...

I'll cancel you.

I'll still love you.

What are you feeding your mind?

We can only do this through HIS POWER.

Apart from Him you can do nothing.

How do we love others?

↳ With gentleness & humility
Regardless of how they have treated you.

↳ Abide with Christ
You can't extend His love if you've never experienced it.

Those who are forgiven little love little.

Those who are forgiven much LOVE MUCH.
