

King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had a golden statue built and decreed that all should worship it when they hear the music.

Three men among the Jewish population refused to bow down to the king as god, and were sentenced to be thrown into a fiery furnace.

They responded to the king...
"Even if God doesn't save us, we still wouldn't serve your gods or worship your idols."

After throwing them into the furnace, the king shouted...

"Didn't we throw in three, tied up? I see four men walking freely and one is like a son of the gods!"

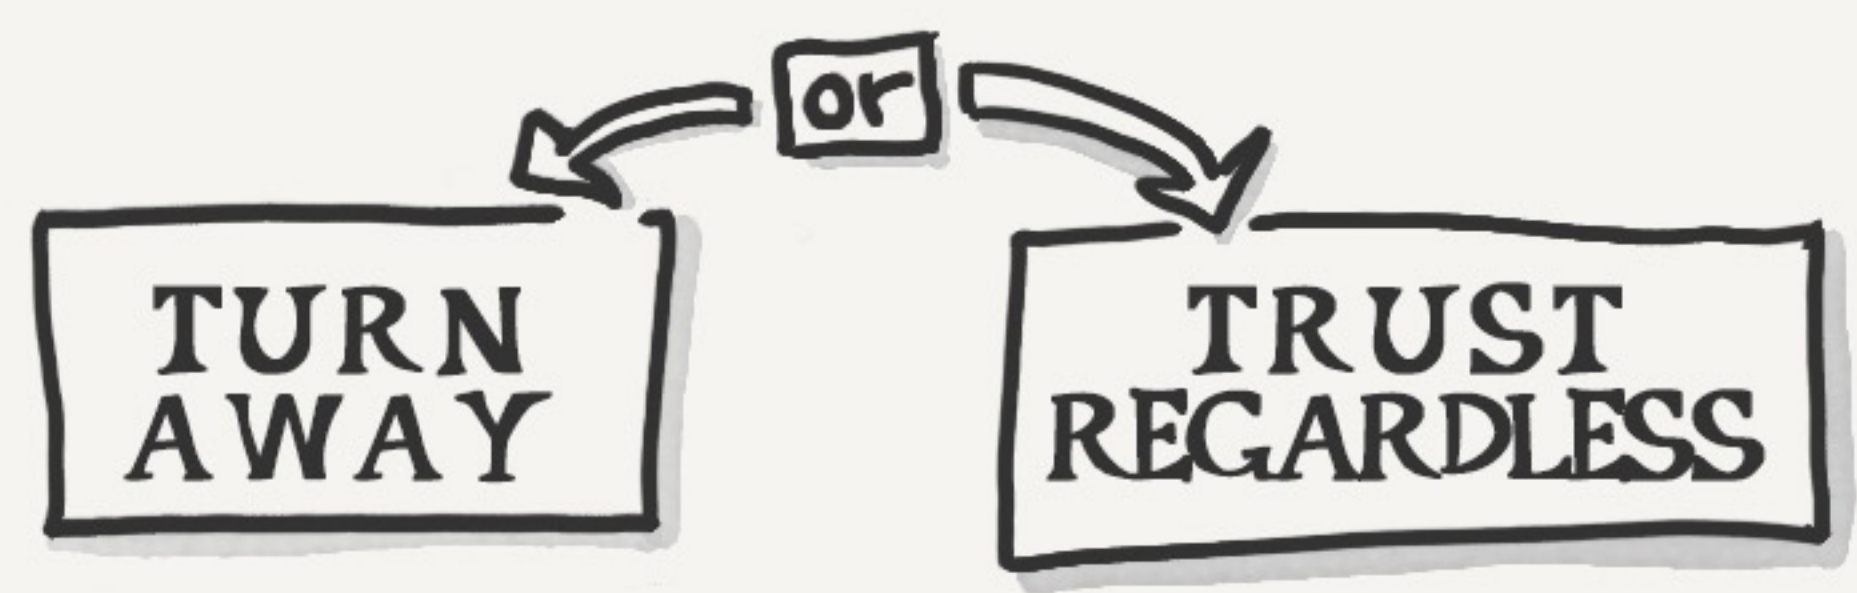

The three men walked out of the fire, and not a single hair was singed, no smell of smoke, and not a scorch mark on them.

Then the king declared...
"There has never been a god who can pull off a rescue like this."

He passed a new law that none should speak against their God on pain of death.

What feels like a bad situation could be a divine appointment.

What do you do when things don't go your way?

Step out of your comfort zone and do what you are called to do.

"The time is always right to do the right thing."

- Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

As you obey, sometimes things will get worse before they get better.

Trust Him
even when things don't go the way you want.

There is no other god able to rescue like this.
