

Don't store treasures for yourselves here on earth where moths and rust will destroy them and thieves can break in and steal them.

But store your treasures in heaven where they cannot be destroyed by moths or rust and where thieves cannot break in and steal them.

Your heart will be where your treasure is.

The eye is a light for the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eyes are evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. And if the only light you have is really darkness, then you have the worst darkness.

No one can serve two masters. The person will hate one master and love the other, or will follow one master and refuse to follow the other. You cannot serve both God and worldly riches.

Jesus cares more about your heart than your money.

We can't take it with us.

There's a difference in hoarding and saving.

Who do you serve?

Lack of generosity reflects a lack of trust in God's provision.

Everything we have is given to us by God.

Where is your trust?

"Do you trust me?"
