

Introduction

Being told about something amazing will always pale in comparison to actually experiencing it. For so many of us, we think it is enough to only hear about Jesus. Yet, unless we are willing to live the life he calls us to, we'll never experience the amazing he has for us.

Discussion Topics

- Read Acts 8:26-40
- How did God guide Philip to the Ethiopian Eunuch (vs 26).
  - Do you think he knew why he was there?
- How did Philip respond to the situation (vs 29)?
  - In your own life, how do you respond to God's prompting and commands?
- C.S. Lewis wrote
"Christianity, if false, is of no importance, and if true, of infinite importance. The only thing it cannot be is moderately important."
  - In which of the three ways have the Christians you have known (perhaps including yourself) treated their belief?
- While we often think of following Jesus as costing us something, what is the cost of NOT following Him?
  - See Galatians 5:22-23.

Moving Forward

When we acknowledge Jesus is Lord, declare it with our lips and fully believe it in our hearts and minds, we should be spurred to action. If you have not been baptized, get baptized. If you have not shared your story, share your story. Make a plan to start acting out the faith that we profess and encourage one another in this effort!
