2. Who in your life is difficult or challenging to love? How can you show them, love? How might this change the way you see them?

3. When in your life has someone shown you "Christ-like" love? How did that impact you? If you haven't experienced that, speak of a time when you may have witnessed it.

4. Stephanie mentioned that the opposite of love is not hate, but indifference.
 - A. Can you think of a time when you felt indifference toward God's love?
 - B. What helped you get through that time?

5. What one thing from this week's message are you going to take and apply to your life this week? If you already started, share about that.

To Close:

Read 1 John 4:7-21. Talk about any additional insights or questions that might arise. Then take time to sit and love on one another. Talk about what the last two months have looked like for each other. Pray together about where each person is and over any additional prayer requests that might come from the questions above.
