Romans 13:8-10 NIV
1.	What's one thing from last weekend's sermon that you hope we talk about as a group?
2.	A look closer at "We are called to Invest and Invite": Who in your life and spiritual life do you feel took the most time to invest in you? What did that look like and feel like in your life? Share some specifics and how that lead you to the path you are on today.
3.	Matthew 9:10-13; Romans 13:8-10: Pastor Terry discussed the quote from Hosea that Jesus recited, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice" and then Pastor Terry referenced the writings of Paul in Romans 13:8-10. Read both of these passages together and then in the examples below, how is "love the fulfillment of the law" in these situations?
	a. Being in a group where gossip is occurring.
	b. Find yourself in a situation where you disagree with the behaviors and discussions of those you are in the same company with.

c. Being made aware that your neighbor is in the hospital after driving under the

4.	How difficult would it be to love others if we ourselves don't know the love of Jesus to its full extent? Share what might keep us from fully understanding his love and how that may keep us from investing in others' lives or entering into their world to share the love of Jesus.
5.	As a home group, how can we better support one another to invest and invite? What are some key takeaways from tonight's discussion that can hinder or help us become "Fishers of men"? Share of some ideas of how we can enter into people's lives who don't know Jesus and allow love to lead them to an invitation to knowing Him.
6.	Times of not fully knowing and understanding the love of Jesus can really hinder how we view and love others. How as a group can we help you better understand this love that Jesus has for you and for others? Is there anything you are going through right now that your home group could be praying for and helping with, if they only knew about it?
