Study

On Sunday we talked a lot about God's kingdom and defined it as "God's rule, over God's People, in God's place." We also talked about how the kingdom has come in Jesus but will also come in full at a later time. We called this the "already-not-yet" aspect of the kingdom.

Read each of the following passages and think about the particular part of redemptive history that we find them in. Then, briefly answer the following questions:

1. What does God's rule look like in the passage?
2. Who are God's people in the passage?
3. Where is God's place in the passage?
4. How is the kingdom "already" present in the passage?
5. How is the kingdom "not yet" present in the passage?

The time of creation and fall. Read Genesis 1:26-31

The time of the exodus and the wilderness wanderings. Read Exodus 3:1-12

The time of the kings. Read 2 Samuel 7:8-17

The time of the incarnation and the church. Read Matthew 28:16-20

In your life personally within the church. Read 2 Corinthians 6:16-7:1

At the end of the age. Read Revelation 22:1-5

Memorizing

Pray then like this: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Matthew 6:9–13ESV
