"Let Us Pray" Part 3

James 5:13-20 (17-18) (NIV)

v.17-18 Elijah was a human being, even as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. 18 Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.

"Come walk with us; we will do thee good!"

Word from our Pastor

Praises be unto God for the great things He hath done.

Greeting in the wonderful and powerful name of our Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ.

As we transition into the eleventh month of this 2026 year many are asking where has the year gone? There is the old saying that time does not wait on anyone. My dad use to tell us when setting idle and not engaged in something worthwhile that we were burning daylight. With that thought before us I wonder how many are burning daylight as we approach our November 3,2026 midterm elections?

Whether you will agree with me or not the outcome of this single election will continue to challenge us to face unprecedented times as never before.

Therefore I urge us to exercise our right to vote as good stewards of the opportunities God has provided us.

The question may be asked why should we engage in this election, here are several reasons that I hope will encourage you to vote.

- To Protect Your Civil Rights, voting ensures continued protection of civil rights legislation.
- To Honor Our Ancestors -African American have a long history of fighting for the right to vote. Exercise that right to honor them and protect our children and youth in generations to come.
- To Stop Voter Suppression -show that voter suppression efforts will not deter you from casting your vote.
- To Improve Access to Healthcare-support candidates advocating for affordable healthcare and access to healthcare.
- To End Systemic Racism-Voting is a way to dismantle systemic racism in criminal justice, education, economic and housing etc.
- To Reform Policies-support polices for police reform, racial profiling, redistricting, redlining and greater accountability.
- To Improve Economic Equality-Elect candidates who will address the racial wealth gap.
- To Improve Environmental Justice-fight for resources, infrastructure, clean air and water in communities of color.

Finally, Research candidates, plan your day to the poll and plan to take or encourage another person to poll to vote.

Remember, this November 3, we have an opportunity to vote on for statewide officials, local officials and a bevy of initiatives. Don't burn daylight, Don't be complacent. Get in the game.

African Americans cannot afford not to vote. We must vote for people who have our best interest in mind, heart and soul.

We must vote for issues that advance the well-being of our families and communities. We can't expect to win with every vote, but if we don't vote, we can certainly expect to lose.

See You at the Polls

Blessings & Enjoy Building

Church Covenant in Response Service

"And they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their Fathers with all their heart and soul." (II Chronicles 15:12)

Minister: What common experience leads us into spiritual fellowship and covenant relations with God and one another?

Congregation: Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

Minister: By what pledge do we turn from the ways of the world?

Congregation: With this view, we engage to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality, to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines.

Minister: What vows do we gladly make as stewards of that which God has entrusted to us?

Congregation: To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel to foster Christian education and missions throughout all nations.

Minister: For the sake of our home and loved one, what tasks do we humbly assume?

Congregation: We engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; and to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances.

Minister: For the sake of the unsaved for whom Christ died to what manner of life and conversation are we solemnly pledged?

Congregation: To walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our effort to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

Minister: Since One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren, by what fraternal ministries are we to strengthen each other and adorn the teachings of our Lord?

Congregation: We further engage to watch over each other in brotherly love and watchfulness; giving and receiving admonition with meekness and affection; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rule of our Savior, to secure it without delay.

Minister: For the good of our own Spiritual development, and for the best interest of the Master's kingdom, what do we promise to do if we move beyond the reach of this church?

Congregation: We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church of this faith, where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

All: Humbly confessing our past sins, we pray for grace and strength to keep these, our holy vows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
